The Sacred Portion Children's Outreach Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

BOZEMAN, MT – The Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) announced today the accreditation of The Sacred Portion Children's Outreach of Bozeman, MT.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

The Sacred Portion Children's Outreach joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 35 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

"We are pleased to include in our membership a ministry committed to providing for orphaned and abandoned children through God's people," said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1998, The Sacred Portion Children's Outreach's (www.sacredportion.org) desire is that children living in institutions not languish but be provided what they need for optimum growth and development. This includes adequate facilities, good nutrition, clothing and medical care. But it goes beyond the basics. Their aim is to also see that children have stimulating environments and opportunities for learning in order to truly thrive.

To learn more about The Sacred Portion Children's Outreach and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch®, ECFA's program that matches God's servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA's newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
